

Name	INDIA'S FINANCIAL MARKETS & INSTITUTIONS Conference Proceedings
Edited by	Dr. L. C. Gupta
Year	1999

CONTENTS

Part One

DEBT MARKET DEVELOPMENT AND INFRASTRUCTURE FINANCING

1. Opening Remarks by Session Chairman - Rakesh Mohan
2. The Real Tasks Before IDFC – Nasser Munjee
3. Debenture Trustees in Default – M.G. Bhide
4. Private Placement Markets in Debt Securities: Facts, Problems and Reforms – Prithvi Haldea
5. Debt Market Development: Broader Issues – R. Ravimohan
6. Indian Debt Markets: Are we focusing on valuation and risk management? – Uma Shashikant

Part Two

EQUITY MARKET: RESTORING INVESTORS' CONFIDENCE

7. Overview of discussion by session Chairman – C.B. Bhav
8. Capital Market : Why is it India's most under-reformed area?-Surjit Bhalla
9. How and why investors' dreams went sour and what needs to be done? – Rajendra P. Chitale
10. Investors' confidence : where the real problem lies? – Basudeb Sen
11. Investors' disenchantment with equities – L.C.Gupta
12. SEBI: Its role and achievements – D.R. Mehta

Part Three

BANKS AND DFIS IN TRANSITION: UNIVERSAL BANKING

13. Overview by session Chairman – Y.V. Reddy
14. Universal Banking: quicker transition needed – D. Basu
15. An Indian perspective on universal banking-Nachiket Mor

16. Universal banking: pros and cons – Ganti Subrahmanyam
17. The DFI's role remains critical – L.C. Gupta

Part Four

FINANCIAL DERIVATIVES AND RISK MANAGEMENT

18. Overview by session Chairman – J.R. Verma
19. Equity derivatives in India – Ajay Shah
20. Miles to go – Shanti Ekambaram
21. Risk Management and Derivatives – Shyamala Gopinath
22. Developing a futures market in debt securities- R.H. Patil
23. Financial Sector Development : Agenda for the next phase -
G.P. Gupta